EXCLUSIVE DEALJUMBO EXTENDED LICENSE:

all deals on dealjumbo comes with this license: <https://dealjumbo.com/license/>

For all premium deals on dealjumbo.com: for unlimited number of personal and commercial projects + you can also use them in designs/products that you sell (for unlimited number of sales). You can use all these items as a part of your non-digital or digital designs (posters, t-shirt designs, stickers, web templates...).

But you cannot resell these files directly (or provide it for free), or within items/goods where they can be extracted in their original form (like vector shapes, elements, fonts... – they need to be flattened into background or object in your digital item).

Non-digital items for sale:

You can work with items from dealjumbo.com premium deals on your non-digital items for sale! You can design your own physical items like T-shirts, posters, mugs, phone covers... and after sell it online or in stores! No need to update graphics – you can print original graphics or just type something with font – no need to update it with your own touch (anyway it's always better and welcomed to update graphics your way to be unique). License is only for 1 person – you'll need to buy 2 licenses if 2 persons will work with these graphics!

Digital items for sale:

You can work with items from dealjumbo.com premium deals also on your digital items for sale! You can design your own digital items and after sell it online! BUT: You cannot resell these files directly, or within digital items/goods where they can be extracted in their original form (your customers cannot be able to extract original vector shapes, graphic elements, photos, textures, fonts... – they need to be flattened into background or object in your digital file for sale). So with digital files for mass sale you need to update original graphics and flatten them into background. License is only for 1 person – you'll need to buy 2 licenses if 2 persons will work with these graphics!
