EXCLUSIVE DEALJUMBO EXTENDED LICENSE:

all deals on dealjumbo comes with this license: <https://dealjumbo.com/license/>

For all premium deals on dealjumbo.com: for unlimited number of personal and commercial projects + you can also use them in designs/products that you sell (for unlimited number of sales, but with limitations – please read our license). You can use all these items as a part of your non-digital or digital designs (posters, t-shirt designs, stickers, web templates...). But you cannot resell these files directly (or provide it for free), or within items/goods where they can be extracted in their original form (like vector shapes, elements, fonts... – they need to be flattened into background or object in your digital item)!!!

1. Non-digital items for sale – physical items (t-shirts, posters, mugs, stickers...) in your own stone shop or in your own web shop: You can work with items from dealjumbo.com premium deals on your non-digital items for sale! You can design your own physical items like T-shirts, posters, mugs, phone covers... and after sell them in your own stone shop or own web shop! No need to update graphics – you can print original graphics or just type something with font – no need to update it with your own touch (anyway it's always better and welcomed to update graphics your way to be unique). License is only for 1 person – you'll need to buy 2 licenses if 2 persons will work with these graphics!

2. Non-digital items for sale – physical items (t-shirts, posters, mugs, stickers...) in web marketplace website or POD websites: You can work with items from dealjumbo.com premium deals on your non-digital items for sale! You can design your own physical items like T-shirts, posters, mugs, phone covers... and after selling it in web marketplace websites or POD websites (Your customers cannot receive any digital file)! And you need to update original graphics! – you cannot just print original artwork and sell it! You need to update original designs with your own style...your design elements, your texts...because also original author can sell on POD websites (so please be respectful to original author) and if all customers will do the same there will be like 100s same designs (for sure these website will not allow to sell it after). License is only for 1 person – you'll need to buy 2 licenses if 2 persons will work with these graphics!

3. Digital items for sale:

You can work with items from dealjumbo.com premium deals also on your digital items for sale! You can design your own digital items (max. 50% of your design can be original graphics from our deals + customers cannot be able to extract original graphics from your digital file) and after selling it online! BUT: You cannot resell these files directly, or within digital items/goods where they can be extracted in their original form (your customers cannot be able to extract original vector shapes, graphic elements, photos, textures, fonts... – original graphics need to be flattened into background or object in your digital file for sale). So with digital files for mass sale you need to update original graphics and flatten them into the background! License is only for 1 person – you'll need to buy 2 licenses if 2 persons will work with these graphics!
